

About Me

Hi Friends,

My name is Gayathri and I am the brain behind this “foody buddy” blog. I am Msc Biotechnology graduate and now home maker residing in USA. Basically I’m foodie and tasting different vegetarian foods is my passion. I love to bake and cook and on this blog, you will find all kind of recipes like Indian and International healthy vegetarian recipes. I’m the photographer, recipe developer and writer. Cooking is my passion and I love photography that’s how this blog has started 4 years ago and I have 400+ recipes in my blog.

I am from Chennai, India and I moved to US after my marriage, so some of the recipes you find here are the recipes that I have learned from my mother, my grandma and mother in law. My mother is a best cook, she cooks variety of dishes for us with love and affection. My husband is a foodie and a good cook, from him I learned a lot of cooking skills. He makes best Mexican dishes.

My hobbies are photography, painting, crochet and video games.

I am using Nikon Coolpix camera. I always take pictures in Natural light and I use online photoeditor to crop, brighten the pictures.

If you are looking for any recipes, use search bar at the right sidebar or click on recipe index on top menu.

All the contents and photos in this blog are my hard work. Please do not copy it without my permission.

Comments and feedback are appreciated. If you “try any of my recipes”, I love to hear from you or send your food photograph of that recipe to my mail id foodybuddy7@ gmail.com. I will post it in foodybuddy facebook page for sure.

To get regular updates of my recipes, keep in touch by following me on Facebook, Twitter, Google + page and pinterest

Thank you !!!
