Ingredients

- 1 Cup of Whole Wheat Flour, I used Aashirvaad Multigrain flour
- 2 Tbsp of Dry Coconut Flakes
- 1 Tsp of Cumin Powder
- 1/2 Tsp of Red Chilly Flakes
- 1/4 Tsp of Turmeric Powder
- 1/2 Tsp of Salt
- 1 Tbsp + 1 Tsp of Vegetable / Canola Oil
- 1/2 Cup of Warm Milk
- Ghee / Butter / Oil for brushing

Serving : 5 Paratha

Method

- In a big wide bowl, mix all the ingredients except milk.
- Make a well in the center. In the meantime, boil the milk in microwave for 1 min.
- Now slowly add warm milk in the centre of the bowl. Mix thoroughly with a fork or by hand to get a smooth dough. I took 1/2 cup of warm milk to knead the dough.

- Now the dough is ready. Cover and let the dough rest for 1 hour.
- Again knead the dough and divide into equal portions and make it into round balls.
- Heat tawa or pan. In the meantime lightly grease the rolling surface with flour. Take one ball and make it circular with a rolling pin.
- Carefully place the paratha on the heated pan. You will see tiny bubbles rises on the surface of paratha.
- Now it's time to flip the paratha with a spatula. Once first flip is done, apply oil or ghee on the upper surface and spread all over the paratha.
- Flip again in 30 secs and apply butter or ghee or oil. Press paratha gently with a spatula and cook till brown spots appear on both the sides of the paratha.
- Coconut Paratha is done when both sides are brown and crispy. Remove it from pan and place it in serving dish.
- Repeat the same process with each ball of dough.

- You can add grated vegetables to make it more nutritious.
- If your dough is dry, you can add some more oil or milk.
