

Easy Munthiri Koothu Recipe / Mundhiri Kothu / Traditional Diwali Sweet

Easy Munthiri Koothu Recipe / Mundhirikothu / Green gram jaggery balls is a healthy, traditional south Indian Diwali sweet particularly famous in kanyakumari, tirunelveli and kerala. They are made with green moong dal, jaggery and coconut for inner filling, rice flour batter for outer covering. This sweet is very similar to another South Indian delicacy called suzhiyam (sugiyam), where cooked channa dal is used and they are soft in texture when you bite. But here in this recipe, roasted green dal is used for filling and it is little hard in texture and when you bite, they are really tasty. I never knew about this sweet and tasted before, when I was talking to my father the other day, he told that his grandma used to make mundiri kothu for diwali. I asked my father, is it made with cashews (mundiri) ? He told it was made with green gram dal. I am not sure about the true meaning of munthirikoothu eventhough it is not made with cashews, so when I did google search, many says it means bunch of grapes in malayalam. Since this sweet is famous in tirunelveli district too, I asked one of my tirunelveli friend Ranjitha for Mundhirikothu recipe, she asked her mom and got the recipe for me. Thank you Ranjitha. You can make this mundirikothu during festival time like diwali or as evening tea time snack.

Mini Badhusa Recipe / Diwali Sweet Recipe

Badhusa is a super flaky popular Indian sweet loved by everyone because of its mild sweetness. This classic dessert is also called BALUSHAHI in northern part of India. It is prepared during festival occasions like diwali and other occasion like wedding. Badhusa is my amma's favourite sweet.

It has got crispy outer covering and flaky, juicy and soft inner part. Five years back, when I first tried donut in US, it tasted almost like badhusa ☐ , same ingredients like all purpose flour, sugar and butter is used so obviously same taste ☐ This post is very special to me, as it was made by my mom (amma) for my blog and the photo was clicked by my sister in law. This is a bite sized mini badhusa. This is my amma's second guest post. Last year, my mom made a easy diwali sweet recipe, rava kesari for my blog. Mini badhusa recipe is not that difficult sweet, so give it try for coming diwali, you will love it ☐ .

Notes

You have to dip the badhusa when it is hot and keep the badhusa in syrup until you fry the second one..similarly do it for the rest of the badhusa

Do not fry the badhusa in high flame the inside won't get cooked.

Lemon juice is added to prevent crystallization of sugar.
