QUINOA KUZHI PANIYARAM RECIPE / QUINOA RECIPES

Quinoa is considered as super food which is loaded with lots of antioxidants, protein , fiber, iron, vitamins and other minerals. This grain is getting more popular, has low glycemic index and it is gluten free. You can replace quinoa with rice,

I know it is expensive but it has lot of health benefits like lowering cholesterol, good for digestion, lowers blood sugar level and cures heart diseases. Nowadays I am trying few recipes with quinoa. I already posted quinoa dosa few months back and I made quinoa biryani which I will post in coming weeks. Few weeks back, my mom made thinai paniyaram and said it came out good. I don't get thinai (foxtail millet) in my place so I replaced with quinoa. The outcome was good and tasty.

Quinoa kuzhi paniyaram recipe (Quinoa Lentil balls) is a healthy and delicious gluten free and vegan breakfast recipe. Here I used red quinoa which I got from walmart. You can use any kind of quinoa. If you don't get quinoa, replace it with thinai (foxtail millet). You can make even dosa with the same batter. In traditional kuzhi paniyaram, we add seasonings to the batter, but here I skipped that. If you want, you can add seasonings or grated carrots to the batter and make paniyaram. Make this quinoa paniyaram for breakfast or dinner or evening snacks for kids. Serve this paniyaram with coconut chutney or tomato chutney.
